Duffy Insurance Agency has added Doug Garabedian as an Account Executive and Producer to its Peabody location.

Doug Garabedian is a commercial and personal lines Account Executive at Duffy Insurance Agency in Peabody MA. Doug started his insurance career in 2015 as an Account Manager at William Gallagher Associates in Boston and recently was a Commercial Lines Producer at Cross Insurance for four years. Doug helps businesses and individuals with their insurance needs.

Doug is North Shore native, born and raised in Salem, MA. After graduating Bishop Fenwick High School, he continued his education at Connecticut College where he was a four year starter on the men's soccer team. Doug was named to the Salem News Men's Soccer all decade team (2010s). Doug enjoys working out and is now an avid golfer. You can find him at any of the local public courses on the weekend, and even at Tedesco Country Club where his father belongs.
